THE Hudson Surprise Party, who returned to-day, have had a most successful time at Macao; there were large houses on both occasions when they performed, and H. E. the Governor was present twice. The company perform to-night at the Garrison Theatre. The performance advertised for tomorrow night, at the Theatre Royal, City

Hall, is one of special excellence. A PHOTOGRAPH was taken during the School Sports on Wednesday afternoon (30th) of the prizes and the winners, on that occasion, including the members of the committee of management. The operator was Mr Griffiths, of Afong's Studio, where the group can now be seen. The light was far too strong to allow of a very successful photograph being taken, as the lights and the shadows are too pronounced, particularly in the background, but many of the youthful athletes come out clearly and well. No doubt copies of the group will be most welcome souvenirs to them and their friends.

THERE is one thing in connection with the 4 p.m.-Brisbane leaves for Sydney and Census Schedules, now being circulated, that ought to be specially noted by occupiers of houses whose duty it is to fill up these papers. It may be thought that the name, &c., and all particulars have to be supplied in reference to Asiatic servants as well as to others; while a careful inspection of the heading will show that this is not so. The person who fills in the paper has to supply all particulars desired as to "visitors, boarders, and servants other than Chinese." If, for instance, an occupier has an European maid-servant, he has to give all the details regarding her which are declared to be necessary to fill up each column, in accordance with the three examples given of the mode of filling up a householder's schedule printed on the form for guidance. As to "Chinese and other Asiatic servants," however, those interested will observe that the total number is asked for, with the distinctions only of male and female, adults and children. This explanation will probably save trouble to those who may be overanxious to render correct returns.

> REVERTING to the case of the youthful "old offender," on which we made some remarks yesterday, we now find that, in spite of the strong deliverance made in Court by the Chief Justice in 1877 on the subject of whipping, and the severe observations on the aggravated nature of the offence which suggested the reference to flogging, no flogging was ever given to the young rascal referred to. This fact may explain in some degree the early return of Lan Achau to the well-known shelter of the prison. So soon as his forty months, or two-thirds of his sentence, had been served, this confirmed criminal was again let loose upon society; and as his personal convenience had been so carefully considered as to lead to the abolition of two floggings of 25 strokes each of which Justice as well as the Chief Justice deemed him worthy, he entertained no healthy dread of the Gaol, and got back to it as soon as he could. He was back into the hands of the Police a few days after he had been liberated from Gaol. This case clearly illustrates what we have always contended to be a most mistaken system of dealing with hardened Chinese criminals.

WELL-KNOWN as the Amazone, Peiho, and the other steamers of the M. M. Company are for speed, yet it has been left to the Yang-Tsé (which left at 10 a.m. to-day with the homeward mail) to do what the others have never been able to accomplish. Leaving Saigon at 4 a.m. on Friday, she passed Cape St. James at 8 a.m. the same day, and dropped anchor in the roads here at 1 a.m. yesterday, making the passage from Saigon in 45 hours, beating the Amazone's and Sindh's fastest time by one and two hours respectively .- Straits Times, March

The paragraph t which Captain Thomson refers as appearing in this journal of the 5th instant, was founded upon the report given to us by the chie officer; and upon our belief that the action of the Japanese was sportaneous and dis interested. Now it appears that the chie officer was either mistaken or imperfectly informed of the course of events : that a far from there being any show of disinter ested hospitality the first condition of a sistance was a demand for money, or a pro mise that money would be forthcomin With the details of the account before us w are forced to confess that in a wild district remote from large towns, where the averag rate of wages for farm labourers does no exceed two yen per month, forty to sixty se a day for watchmen cannot be calle moderate; on the contrary, the rate is on The next English Mail may be expected par with one yen daily for hotel charges for hourly, by the P. & O. steamer Lomining single person where fifty sen should suffice bardy, which brings London dates up. experience has not as yet supplied sufficient round for its condemnation, and it is true that while a diminution of milk secretion is usually an early symptom in almost all diseases of the cow, complete suppression of that secretion accompanies any aggravation or prolongation of disease. The source of danger is thus removed by the operation of natural causes, and the discussion is narrowed to the question whether milk secreted at the very onset may not have acquired hurtful properties. In this state of uncertainty, which has not been cleared up by any authority on hygiene, the precaution of boiling the milk should be adopted. Boiling destroys any infective germs that it may contain.

Eleven years ago "P. and O. sherry" was a byeword; but I should have a poor opinion of the palate which did not appreciate the flavour and delicacy of what i furnished now. And there is an extra quality of Perrier Jouet, and a Burgundy at three-and-six a bottle, which I will venture to back against those supplied at any club in London at the same price. He said it was time for the House to show its strength and deliver Ireland from the terrorism of unwritten law, and for Parliament to show itself strong enough to restore order. He hoped it would show itself strong enough to pass such measures as would render any future Coercion bill unnecessary, by making the people of Ireland contented and pros-

Arthur O'Connor replied in a warm speech. At 12.30 a.m. he sat down, whereupon, as no other Minister rose, the Speaker put the question on McCarthy's motion for the rejection of the bill. Defeated—321 to 67. Six English members voted with the minority.

O'Connor wished to move an amendment, but the Speaker could not accept it. O'Donnell rose amid cries of "Divide!" THE CHINA REVIEW.

THE widely-expressed regret at the discontinuance of Notes & Queries on China and Japan, has induced the publishers of this journal to issue a publication similar in object and style, but slightly modified in certain details.

THE CUINA REVIEW, or Notes and Queries on the Far East, is issued at intervals of two months, each number coutaining about 60 octavo-pages, occasionally Illustrated with lithographs, photographs woodcuts, &c., should the papers published demand, and the circulation justify, such extra matter.

The subscription is fixed at $6.50 postage paid, per annum, payable by non-residents in Hongkong half-yearly in advance.

The publication includes papers original and selected upon the Arts and Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Manners and Customs, Natural History, Religion, &c., &c., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibot, the Eastern Archipelego and the "Far East" generally. A more detailed list of subjects upon which contributions are especially invited is incorporated with each number. Original contributions in Chinese, Latin,. French, German, Spanish, Italian or Portuguese, are admissible. Endeavours are made to present a resume in each number of the centents of the most recent works bearing on Chinese matters. Great attention is also paid to the Review

Notes and Replies are classified together as "Notes" (head references being given, when furnished, to previous Notes or Queries), as are also those queries which though saking for information, furnish new or unpublished details concerning the matter in hand. It is desirable to make the Queries proper as brief and as much to the point as possible.

The China Review for July and August. 1875, is at hand. It says that forty-two essays were sent in to compete for the best paper on the advantages of Christianity for the development of a State. All our learned societies should subscribe to this scholarly and enterprising Review. It is a sixty paged, bi-monthly, repertory of what scholars are ascertaining about China. The lecture on Chinese Poetry in this volume is alone worth the price of the Review. Address China Review, Hongkong.-Northern Christian Advocate (U.S.) Trubner's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review :- "This is the title of a publication, the first number of which has lately reached us from Hongkong, where it has been set on foot as in some respects a continuation of Notes and Queries on China and Japan, the extinction of which useful serial a year or two ago has been much regretted in Europe as well as in Chins. The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, somewhat similar to that which has been filled in India by the to H.E. the Governor. Calcutta Review. The great degree_of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say Queen's Road Central. nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable : and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked for from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs' corps, and the missionary body, among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously cultivated, and who are severally represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly creditable to their respective authors. In a paper on Dr. Legge's She King, by the Rev. E. J. Eitel, to which the place of honour is deservedly given, an excellent summary is presented of the chronological problems and arguments involved in connexion with this important work. Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshness of style; and an account of the career of the Chinese poet-statesman of the eleventh century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bowra, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that "Notes" and "Queries" are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary zeal to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its prodecessor in the field, and that the China Review may receive the support necessary to insure its continuance. The publication is intended to appear every two months, and will form a substantial octavo magazine.

THE CHINESE MAIL.

This paper is now issued every day. The subscription is fixed at Four Dollars per annum delivered in Hongkong, or Seven Dollars Fifty Cents including postage to Coast ports.

It is the first Chinese Newspaper ever issued under purely native direction. The chief support of the paper is of course derived from the native community. amongst whom also are to be found the more than three hours. guarantors and securities necessary to place it on a business and legal footing. The advantages offered to advertisers are therefore unusually great, and the foreign community generally will find it to their interest to avail themselves of
